Dear Sirs:

I beg to enclose herewith a letter I have just received from a gentleman in West Virginia seeking information on coins, as he intends to read a paper on this subject before a literary club in his town. If you can be of any assistance to him it will be a great favor to me.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir:-

In response to your letter of the 26th, I am to-day sending to Mr. Armstrong one or two pamphlets which we have for free distribution and a half a dozen back numbers of the Numismatist. Perhaps he may be able to secure enough suggestions from them to enable him to prepare an acceptable paper.

Yours very sincerely,

Secretary.
